The Siruntion in Kentucky, # Louisville has been in a furore of excitement with regard to the advance of Bragg upon that city, but it has greatly subsided now. The order of General Nelson to the women and children to prepare to leave the city at a moment's notice, followed as it was by an order that the Jeffersonville ferry should be used exclusively for military purposes, suggested the farmers to send forward their wagons a query as to how and in what direction loaded with forage, &c., and return with the women and children were to escape. salt. Cumberland Gap Evacuated-Recapture of Richmond, Kentucky, by General

A dispatch from Louisville to the Cinfinnati Gazette says it is reported here in official circles and believed that General . W. Morgan has reached Richmond, Kentucky, from Cumberland Gap, and on entering the former town captured some 600 rebels and a large quantity of stores. A Richmond (Virginia) paper, of Saturday last, contains a dispatch from General McKeown, commanding the robels in East Tennessee, dated Knoxville, September Speeches of the President and 19th, stating that the Federal forces evacuated Cumberland Gap on Thursday night, them. The rebel papers do not regard this news as favorable, as it was supposed by them that Morgan had been completely hemmed in.

Capture of Kanawha Salt Works by the The Mobile Evening News, of the 16th inst., contains the following dispatch:

Biomwore, September 16, 1802. [By telegraph from Dublin, Sept. 16, to Hon. George W.
